So why do we have Gad running an erection-stricken Gyllenhaal to the hospital from a sex party at the hippest house in the middle of freakin' Ohio? Should we be thankful that we're deprived of Jamie's inevitable moral awakening, or disappointed that a potentially savage takedown of Big Pharma just went out the window? (Azaria and Oliver Platt, as Jamie's mentor, each have their big moment of conscience before being shuffled out of the picture.)
