Or does the freezing of one part of the surplus value in monetary form in the hands of certain capitalists mean that other capitalists will be left with a corresponding part of that surplus product in its material form? does the hoarding of realised surplus value by some imply that others are no longer able to realise their surplus value, since the capitalists are the only buyers of surplus value? This would mean, however, that the smooth course of reproduction and similarly of accumulation as described in the diagram would be interrupted

Sadly for those in the UK, their shows over here have been few and far between. Thankfully the next best thing is here A FOREIGNERS JOURNEY. The band have toured throughout the UK and Europe for the last 6 years and headlined a number of festivals, safely establishing themselves as one of the most respected and known tribute shows around. Cherry picking the very best songs from each of the two bands, bonafide rock classics such as (the massive) "Don't Stop Believing", "Separate Ways", "Cold As Ice", "Juke Box Hero", "Waiting For A Girl Like You" and "I Want To Know What Love Is". A Foreigners Journey take things much beyond a mere "tribute act" and turn their show into a living, breathing and powerful show. Guaranteed to be an evening to remember and real treat for all those who love quality, commercial rock.
